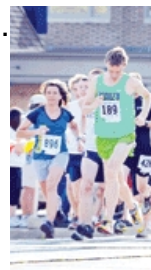
Grafton man, Milwaukee woman race to top honors at annual festival run in Port Washington

Andy Ashenden and Holly Ochs raced to top honors in the annual Fish Day 8K Run in Port Washington last Saturday.

Ashenden, a Grafton resident, was the overall winner with a time of 25 minutes, 52.8 seconds.



Ochs, of Milwaukee, was the first woman across the finish line in 32:08.02. She was also the top female finisher last year.

Taking first-place team honors was TROP, which had a composite time of 2:21:30.8. Members were Dan Machmueller, Jack Hackett, Colin Zauner, Mark Pasten, Casey Karpin, Christopher Karpin, Brandon Hinneberg, Jared Sandlin, Eric Ross, Jacob Schowalter, Steven Nelson and Mark Allen.

The race and a 2-mile run/walk, which are held as a fundraiser that benefits Portal Industries, attracted 930 participants.

The winners of the 2-mile race were James Keene of Port Washington among male runners and Sue Miller of West Bend among females.
