

Town supervisors face rare challenge

Written by CAROL POMEDAY
Wednesday, 27 March 2013 17:08

□ □ Town of Belgium supervisors Francis Kleckner and William Janeshek are facing a rare challenge from two members of the town's Plan Commission in the spring election Tuesday, April 2.

Dennis Dimmer, 1967 Hwy. K, and James Blick, 627 Hwy. D, are making their first bids to be on the Town Board, saying it's time for a change.

Town supervisors face rare challenge

Written by CAROL POMEDAY
Wednesday, 27 March 2013 17:08

Francis Kleckner (Inc.)

Age: 74

Address: 5604 Farm Rd.

Family: Married; 4 children

Occupation: Former dairy farmer, now cash-crop farmer.

Elected offices: Town of Belgium chairman 1991-2011; town supervisor 2011-present and 1975-1991; Northern Ozaukee School Board 1988-present.

Appointed offices: Chairman of Ozaukee County Drainage Board, Ozaukee County Farmland Preservation Plan Committee.

Organizations: National Farmers Organization.

William Janeshek (Inc.)

Age: 45

Address: 2281 Hwy. D

Family: Single; 2 children.

Occupation: Ozaukee County Highway Department for 27 years; cash-crop farmer.

Elected offices: Town of Belgium supervisor 1997-present.

Appointed offices: Town of Belgium Plan Commission for seven years.

James Blick

Age: 67

Address: 627 Hwy. D

Family: Married

Occupation: Semi-retired; meat clerk at Metro Market, Mequon.

Elected offices: Unsuccessful bid for Ozaukee County clerk in 1995.

Appointed offices: Town of Belgium Plan Commission 2011-present

Organizations: Belgium American Legion Post 412.

Dennis Dimmer

Age: 55

Town supervisors face rare challenge

Written by CAROL POMEDAY

Wednesday, 27 March 2013 17:08

[REDACTED]