Alma I. Maechtle, a longtime school secretary and former Port Washington-Saukville School Board member, died Monday, June 18, at Ellen's Home in Port Washington. She was 92.

Mrs. Maechtle worked as a Port Washington-Saukville school secretary and later became secretary to the superintendent of schools, retiring about 1983.

In 1984, she was appointed to the School Board, a position she held until resigning in 1990.

Funeral arrangements are pending through Eernisse Funeral Home, Port Washington.
