

Faye Brown

Written by Ozaukee Press
Wednesday, 29 May 2013 18:25

Fredonia resident Faye Ruth Brown, 70, who formerly lived in Port Washington, died Sunday, May 26, at Aurora Medical Center in Grafton, of complications from respiratory distress, her family said.

Funeral services will be at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 30, at Open Door Bible Church, Port Washington.

The Rev. Sid Litke will officiate.

Visitation will be at the church from 4 p.m. Thursday until the service.

Interment will be at Oakridge-Glen Oak Cemetery in Hilldale, Ill.

Memorials to Open Door Bible Church are requested.

Eernisse Funeral Home, Port Washington, is handling the arrangements.