Keith E. Schimke, a longtime Port Washington High School math teacher who even in retirement found time to help children understand his favorite subject, died Sunday, April 18, at West Allis Memorial Hospital. He was 77.

Mr. Schimke had been in hospitals or rehabilitation centers since undergoing back surgery in December, his daughter Laurie Killinger said. He developed respiratory problems and suffered a heart attack, she said.

A Mass of Christian burial will held Friday, April 23, with a procession leaving Eernisse Funeral Home in Port Washington at 6 p.m. to go to St. Mary's Catholic Church in Port Washington for a 6:30 p.m. Mass. Father Tom Lijewski will officiate.

Visitation will be from 3 to 6 p.m. Friday at Eernisse Funeral Home.

Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery in Port Washington.
