

Assembly, senate candidates to square off in Oct. 25 forum

Written by Ozaukee Press

Wednesday, 17 October 2012 18:31

A forum featuring local candidates for state assembly and senate will be held from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 25, at Milwaukee Area Technical College's North Campus, 5555 W. Highland Rd., Mequon.

The candidates include incumbent Republican Glenn Grothman and challenger Democrat Tanya Lohr, who are seeking the 20th District Senate seat; incumbent Republican Jim Ott and Democratic challenger Cristine Weber-Rogers, who are seeking the 23rd Assembly seat; and Republican incumbent Duey Stroebel and Democratic challenger Perry Duman, who are seeking the 60th District Assembly seat.

The forum will be moderated by the League of Women Voters.

Ozaukee
PRESS