Country singer Darryl Worley, who has had nearly 20 hit singles, will headline Rock the Harbor, a street festival in downtown Port Washington to be held in conjunction with Harley Davidson's 110th anniversary celebration in late August.

Worley will take to the festival's main stage at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 30

Worley has had three singles hit No. 1 on the charts — "I Miss My Friend," "Awful, Beautiful Life" and "Have You Forgotten." He's also had several chart-topping albums that garnered sales in the millions.

Rock the Harbor, which is patterned after the city's successful Community Street Festival, is expected to have three music stages for local bands and national acts set up throughout the downtown and marina. Vendors — primarily Port Washington area businesses and organizations — are expected to set up booths along Franklin Street and East Grand Avenue.

Organizers anticipate the free festival, which will run from 3 to 11 p.m., will attract 15,000 to 20,000 people.

Rock the Harbor is a partnership between Port Washington Main Street and Suburban Harley-Davidson in Thiensville.
