Commencement ceremonies will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 11, for the 66 members of the Ozaukee High School Class of 2011.

The valedictorian is Dustin Richter and the salutatorian is Alexi Hughes.

The commencement address will be given by David Karrels. Abbey Beck will present the class gift and the senior memories will be shared by Jason Gensrick and Ashley Kesselring.

Outgoing Principal Kevin Parker will present members of the class for their diplomas.

Following the ceremony, the senior slide show will be screened in the high school commons.

The program is open to the public.
